

A woman with dark hair, seen from behind, is sitting on a wooden swing. The swing is suspended by ropes from a large, leafy tree that fills the upper half of the frame. The woman is wearing a white, sleeveless dress. She is looking out over a bright blue ocean with white waves crashing onto a sandy beach. In the distance, a small, light-colored umbrella is visible on the beach. The sky is a clear, vibrant blue with a few wispy clouds. The overall scene is peaceful and serene, evoking a sense of relaxation and focus.
